OLD BUSINESS

- Shawn Warren motioned to approved minutes, Allison Seeley seconded this, and the motion passed unanimously.
- Accidents/near misses An employee was spray painting and staff in an adjacent office became ill from the fumes. Carol contacted the staff who conducted the painting and explained Hazard Communication, SDS and safety protocols used to avoid exposing other staff to fumes. The staff member affected by the fumes required no treatment and the other employee agreed that this was not part of their regular job duties and would not do this again.
- The committee discussed the NWAC COVID Health and Safety Recommendations document provided by Mike Herbert.
- Discussion was held on health screening and testing of athletes and coaches before they arrive on campus.
- The committee discussed the fact that during the recent power outage on campus, the lights in the stairwells of Tioga did not come on. Carol put in a work order for Facilities staff to remedy this.
