

PART-TIME FACULTY COMPENSATION

It is the Administrative policy of Southwestern Oregon Community College that part-time faculty shall be compensated accordingly in the following areas:

SALARY COMPENSATION GUIDELINES

Employees teaching lecture, lecture laboratory, laboratory, non-credit, and drop-in laboratory assignments shall be paid for the number of work load credits and calculated by course type specified on the approved course outline in the Office of Instruction.

Employees working as interpreters and librarians shall be paid for the number of assigned work hours.

Adjustments will not be made for holidays, official college calendar adjustments after a term begins, or for emergency closure of less than one week.

Additional work load credits given for preparation time, lecture rates for laboratory assignments, and any other special pay incentives shall be approved by the appropriate Dean and the Vice President of Instruction before contracts are prepared.

WORKLOAD EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of work load calculation, some proportion of a part-time faculty work load credit will result from a work assignment unit equivalent to 10 to 12 student contact hours of lecture instruction, lecture/laboratory instruction, laboratory instruction, or drop-in lab instruction.

Twenty (20) work load credits for one academic term is a one (1) FTE work load for part-time faculty.

Each unit of 10 to 12 student contact hours will be weighted as follows for the purpose of work load credit calculation:

Lecture instruction	1 work load credit
Lecture/Laboratory instruction	.75 work load credit
Laboratory instruction, interpreter, Librarian, Counselor	.66 work load credit
Drop-in Labs(e.g., math, writing)	.43 work load credit
Practicum Instruction	.25 work load credit

STEP ADVANCEMENT

Part-time faculty shall be eligible for a step advancement on the Part-Time Faculty Salary Schedule when the employee has:

- taught forty-five workload credits, or
- has been employed for eight (8) academic terms.

COOPERATIVE WORK EXPERIENCE AND FIELD EXPERIENCE

It is the Administrative policy of Southwestern Oregon Community College that Faculty of Record shall be compensated $100 (one hundred dollars) per student completing an approved Cooperative Work Experience or Field Experience program. Payment will be at the end of the term after copies of student/employer agreements, grades, and reports of work-site visits have been submitted as required by the appropriate administrator.
