
REGISTRATION FEES

It is the policy of the Southwestern Oregon Community College District that a registration fee may be charged for classes that:

1. offer Continuing Education Units (CEU's),
2. offer Professional Development Units (PDU's),
3. are non-credit,
4. are non-reimbursable,
5. special credit classes.

The fee shall be variable and based on the cost of providing the class.

The fee may be waived when the class provides a community service or when there is adequate reimbursement through other sources to cover the cost.

Registration fees shall be charged in addition to any tuition the student must pay for other credit courses.
