Southwestern Oregon Community College ("The College") is committed to providing an academic and work environment free of unlawful sex harassment under Title IX. This procedure defines sexual harassment on campus.

This procedure and the related policy protects students, applicants for admission or employment, and other individuals participating or attempting to participate in the College's education program or activity.

Definitions

Sexual Harassment under Title IX: Conduct that satisfies one or more of the following:

- Quid pro quo Harassment: A College employee conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the College on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct
- Hostile Environment Harassment: Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the College's education program or activity;
- Sexual assault. Any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent or unlawful, sexual intercourse. Sexual assault includes sexual exploitation and the following:
  - Rape Sexual intercourse between two people, and may include oral or anal intercourse, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her/their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
  - Statutory Rape. Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
  - Sexual Assault with an Object. To use an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
  - Fondling. The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
  - Incest. Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
  - Dating violence. Violence against a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of a relationship will be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
  - Domestic Violence. Violence committed:
    - By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
    - By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
    - By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
    - By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family

- violence laws of Oregon; or
- By any other person against an adult or youth victim protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of Oregon.
- Stalking. Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress.
