GENERAL INFORMATION

The Southwestern Oregon Community College District Board of Education is seeking proposals from legal firms, associations, or attorneys for personnel services and labor relations.

The College Labor Attorney appointed to serve on July 1, 2021, shall act as the Labor Attorney for the College for the three year window beginning July 1, 2021 and ending June 30, 2024.

Proposals must be received at the above address by March 18, 2021 at 3:00 p.m. It is entirely the responsibility of the proposer to ensure that their proposal is received at the above location by this deadline. Proposals which are received after the deadline will not be considered.

The College reserves the right to reject any proposal not in compliance with all prescribed public procurement requirements, and to reject for good cause any or all proposals upon finding that it is in the public interest to doso.

No proposal will be received or considered unless fully complete in the manner provided in this proposal document and advertisement for proposals.

Submit only one proposal for consideration. Multiple proposals will be deemed non-responsive.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF PROPOSERS

Southwestern Oregon Community College follows the Oregon public contracting code, ORS 279 and related regulations, as modified by the College's local contract review Board. Certain purchases go through a prescribed bid/quote/proposal process. (For the purposes of this document, "bid", "quote" and "proposal" may be used interchangeably.) A Request for Proposal (RFP) allows the College to evaluate vendors' proposals using criteria in addition to or instead of price.

As a proposer, you are expected to submit proposals that are accurate, complete, and contain all terms and conditions which you feel are necessary. If, after submitting your proposal, you find changes are necessary, you may change or withdraw your proposal any time up to the time of the proposal submission deadline. However, after the deadline, the bid may not be changed or altered in any way. If accepted, your bid/quote/proposal is considered a binding contract that you, as the proposer, will be expected to honor. No proposer may withdraw his/her bid after the deadline, or before award of the contract, unless said award is delayed for a period exceeding 60 days. The total length of the proposal, including attachments, should not exceed 15 pages.

COLLEGE LABOR ATTORNEY INFORMATION

- Company name, location and mailing address of the office that will lead the effort, and contact information.
- 2. Name, address, title, telephone, e-mail address and fax number of the person who would be responsible for the College contract.

SUBMITTAL ACCEPTANCE

Submittals will be judged on the completeness and quality of content as described in this Request for Proposal. Only those submittals that contain complete information as required by these specifications will be considered forevaluation.

RIGHT OF AWARD OR REJECTION

Submission of a response shall indicate to the College that the proposer accepts all the terms and conditions contained in this RFP and associated documents. It is understood that all submittals shall become a part of the public file on this matter without obligation to the College. The College may reject any submittal that does not comply with all the prescribed submission procedures and requirements in this Request for Proposal, and may, forgood cause, reject any or all submittals, or any part of a submittal, upon a finding that it is in the public interest to do so.

INQUIRIES

Questions that arise during preparation of the RFP shall be submitted by email to crichards@socc.edu who will forward questions to the Southwestern Oregon Community College Vice President of Administrative Services.

All questions must be received by crichards@socc.edu no later than March 9, 2021 at 3:00 p.m. All questions and answers thereto shall be provided by March 15, 2021 at 3:00 p.m.

CONTRACT

The College Labor Attorney will initially be appointed for three years beginning July 1, 2021 and ending June 30,2024. The appointment shall be in accordance with Board Policy 6031 Appointment of Board College Labor Attorney. WithBoard of Education approval, a two year extension may be given after the initial three year appointment, for a total of five years. After five years, the Board of Education is required by its bylaws to solicit proposals for College Labor Attorney services. When an appointment is not extended, the Board of Education will direct the College President or his/her designee to prepare criteria for College Labor Attorney services for Board of Education approval and to solicit proposals from firms or individuals desiring to provide College Labor Attorney services.

Contracts may be reopened by either party in October of any year. Before November 15th, either party may give notice to terminate the contract effective June 30th of the next year.

This procedure does not prevent the Board of Education from taking action to revoke the appointment of a College Labor Attorney at any time upon affirmative vote of five (5) members of the Board of Education at a Board meeting. The successful proposal and all terms and conditions contained in this Request for Proposals will be made part of the contract. The management of this contract for the College will be the direct responsibility of the Vice President of Administrative Services.

In the event that the contractor fails to carry out or comply with any of the terms and conditions of the contract, the College reserves the right to demand remedy of any failure or default within ten (10) days. In the event that the contractor fails to remedy the failure or default within the specified period, the College shall have the right to cancel and terminate the contract without additional notice.

INTERPRETATION OF SPECIFICATIONS

No officer or employee of Southwestern Oregon Community College has any authority to place any interpretation, either verbal or written, upon the foregoing or annexed specifications without written approval from the Office of Administrative Services.

PROHIBITION OF ALTERNATIONS

Proposals which are incomplete or that contain irregularities of any kind, which are not in conformity with the law may be rejected.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONDITIONS

Each bidder, by the submission of a proposal, assents to each and every term and condition set forth anywhere in these specifications and agrees to be bound thereby.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENT

By submitting this proposal, the bidder certifies conformance to the applicable Federal Acts, Executive Orders and Oregon Statutes concerning Affirmative Action toward equal employment opportunities. All information and reports required by the Federal or Oregon Governments having responsibilities for the enforcement of such laws, shall be supplied to the College upon request for purposes of investigation to ascertain compliance with such acts, regulations and orders.

DEPARTURES FROM TERMS OF CONTRACT

No direction or approval given by the College or any representative of the College which deviates in any respect from the specifications or other contract documents shall be valid or recognized unless and until the same is reduced to writing and issued in the form of a written order over the signature of the Vice President of Administrative Services.

NON-ASSIGNABILITY

Neither the Contract nor any interest of the College Labor Attorney therein can be transferred to any other person or persons without the written consent of the College, and any such attempted transfer shall be utterly void and may be treated by the College as a willful failure or refusal on the part of the College Labor Attorney to perform the Contract according to its terms and conditions.

PROHIBITED INTERESTS

No official of the College who is authorized in such capacity and on the behalf of the College to negotiate, make, accept, or approve, or to take part in negotiating, making, accepting, or approving any furnishing of service for the College, shall become directly or indirectly interested personally in this contract or any part thereof. No officer, or employee, of or for the College who is authorized in such capacity and on behalf of the College to exercise any legislative, executive, supervisory, or other similar functions in connection with the services provided or in any part thereof, items, insurance contract, or any other contract pertaining thereto, shall become directly or indirectly interested personally in this contract or any part thereof.

RESERVATIONS

The Board of Education of Southwestern Community College herein expressly reserves the following rights:

- To negotiate separately with any source whatsoever in any manner necessary to serve the best interest of the College. The College does not intend to award a contract solely on the basis of any
